GREETINGS FROM AMERICA'S FINEST CITY

Fall is upon us! We hope you have been getting cosy and starting to check off some things on your autumn bucket list. Here in the San Diego Crew Classic office, the month of October brings us two things:

Registration opens

If you want to get a head start on planning out your spring season, make sure to mark down October 24th, 2022 on your calendars! If you'd like to learn more or bookmark the tab on your browser page, feel free to check out our Regatta Central page by clicking the button down below.

Our 21st Annual Row for the Cure!

Last Saturday, October 8th 2022, brought yet another successful Row for the Cure! Together we were able to raise a total of $16,000 to fight against breast cancer. Thank you so much to everybody who participated and/or donated! Enjoy some of our favorite pictures from the regatta down below:

SEEDING: How we seed at the San Diego Crew Classic

We've been hearing about some confusion regarding our seeding process as a regatta, let's clear that up! Although seeding can often be decided randomly, this is not the case for the San Diego Crew Classic. We leave seeding up to the coaches for our Junior and Collegiate participants, having them vote on the heats and lane assignments for their team's racing category. Masters lanes are primarily seeded through ranking order of the clubs' SDCC finish placements in the prior year, but we also take results of other races within the past year and Crew Classic results from 2-3 years back into consideration as well. As a whole, we do everything we can to ensure that the lanes are seeded well and fairly. We wouldn't want anything else for our participants!

Congratulations to Marin's Women's JV for winning the ZLAC Rowing Club Cup!

Marin Rowing Association entered 10 junior boats into eight events and left with six gold medals and one bronze. The team went on to have a fantastic season - including getting 1st place at Youth Nationals in the U16 W8+ and the Youth B event!

Go Marin!

SDCC EMPLOYEE SHOUTOUT: Hannah Broadland

Our Volunteer and Marketing Coordinator at the 2022 World Rowing Championships!

After working with us and training with San Diego Rowing Club about a year, Hannah Broadland earned a spot on the 2022 USRowing Senior National Team as the coxswain of the Women's 8+! Her and her teammates trained throughout the summer in Princeton, New Jersey before placing 4th in their event.
